Public transport (Barajas Airport –Madrid centre) :

Flights to Madrid arrive at Barajas airport (www.aena.es) , which is 12 Km from the city of Madrid. To go from Barajas airport to Madrid, there are mainly three options:

1. METRO (Metro Map):

There are two Metro stations inside the airport : “Aeropuerto T1-T2-T3” y “Aeropuerto T4” (both situated in line 8, pink colour), which connect you with the city centre.

The estimated time from the Airport to the city centre is around 45 minutes .

Current Metro tariffs (Revised May 2012):

- Single ticket: 1.5 €
- “Metrobús”(10 trip ticket) : 12 €
- Airport surcharge: 1€

- o The ”Metrobús” ticket is valid for both Metro and Buses.

2. BUS :

There are also Public buses accessible from all terminals that take you to Avenida de América (Metro Lines 4, 6,7, y 9) and viceversa.

- o TerminalT4: Bus line 204
- o Terminals; T1, T2, T3 : bus lines 200 and 101
- o The price of the single bus ticket is 1.5€ and the “Metrobús” is 12 €.

3. TAXI : You may use an official taxi (white cars with a red line) which charge an additional official fee for coming from/to the airport. The total cost to go to the city centre may be approximately 30-40 €.

Currency and exchange:

National currency is the Euro (€). There are banknotes for 5, 10, 20, 50, 100, 200, 500 € and coins for 1; 2; 5; 10; 20 and 50 cents, and 1 and 2 €.

Exchange offices are located at Barajas Airport and all around the city. Credit cards are accepted in almost all places.

Shop opening times:

In Madrid, most shops open from Monday to Saturday from 10.00 till 20 (with a lunch break from 14.30-17.00). Shops situated in the core city centre open all days of the week.

There is late-night shopping also from Monday to Saturday in big Malls and some Department Stores until 22.00.
