Consumer Price Index (CPI). Base 2011
July 2015

Overall index

	Monthly change	Change over last July	Annual change
July	-0.9	-0.1	0.1

Main results

- The annual change of the CPI for the month of July stands at 0.1%, the same figure than that registered in the previous month.
- The annual change of core inflation increases two tenths, reaching 0.8%.
- The monthly change of the overall index is -0.9%.
- The Harmonised Index of Consumer Prices (HICP) annual change stands at 0.0%, thus it remains unchanged as compared with June.

Annual evolution of consumer prices

The annual rate for the overall Consumer Price Index (CPI) in July was 0.1%, the same as that registered in the previous month.

The groups that most contributed to this variation were:

- Housing, whose annual rate increased eight tenths up to -0.1%, due to the increase in the prices of electricity this month, as compared to the decrease registered in July 2014.

In this group, it was also worth noting the decrease in the prices of gas and heating fuels, which remained stable the previous year.

- Communication, with a -0.6% rate, more than a point over that registered in June. This was mainly explained by the fact that the prices of phone services showed no change this month, as compared to the decreases registered the previous year.

- Recreation and culture, with an annual variation of -0.2%, six tenths over that registered in June and mainly due to the increase in the prices of package holidays, greater than the increase of the previous year.

Among the groups with a negative contribution, worth noting were:

- Transport, with a variation of -3.5%, seven tenths below that recorded in the previous month. This reduction was due to the decrease in the prices of fuels and lubricants this month, as compared with the stability of July 2014.
- Food and non-alcoholic beverages, with a monthly variation of 1.4%, four tenths below that recorded in June. Worth noting in this behaviour was the decrease in the prices of fresh vegetables and fresh fruits. To a lesser extent, it was also due to the stability in the prices of fresh fish, which registered an increase in 2014.

Worth noting was, in turn, the increase in the prices of oils this month, as compared with the decrease recorded in July 2014.

Contribution of the groups to the annual change of the CPI

The annual change for core inflation (overall index excluding unprocessed food and energy products) increased two tenths up to 0.8%, standing seven tenths over the overall CPI rate.

Monthly evolution of consumer prices

In July, the monthly change of the overall CPI was -0.9%.

Among the groups with negative contribution to the overall index, worth noting were:

- Clothing and footwear, whose rate was -12.9%, which includes the usual behaviour of prices during summer sales. Its contribution to the overall index was -0.951.
- Transport, with a monthly change of -0.5% and a contribution of -0.085, reflecting the decrease in the prices of fuels and lubricants.
- Food and non-alcoholic beverages, which registered a variation of -0.4%, and a contribution of -0.076, as a result of the decrease in the prices of fresh vegetables and fresh fruit.
- Furniture and household equipment, whose -0.8% rate had a contribution of -0.047. This behaviour was due to the decrease in the prices of household textile products and Furniture.

In turn, the groups with the greatest positive contribution to the overall index are the following:

- Leisure and culture, whose monthly rate was 1.9%, mainly explained by the increase in the prices of package holidays. The contribution of this group to the overall index was 0.134.
- Hotels, cafés and restaurants, with a monthly change of 0.6% due to the increase in the prices of hotels and other accommodation. Its contribution to the CPI was 0.066.
- Housing, with a monthly change of 0.3%, and a contribution of 0.039, reflecting the increase in the prices of electricity.

In this group, it is also worth noting, in turn, the decrease in prices of gas and heating fuels.

A more detailed analysis showed the divisions that had the greatest contribution to the monthly CPI change during the month of July.
