Consumer Price Index (CPI). Base 2006

October 2009

Overall index

	Monthly change	Change over last December	Annual change
October	0.7	0.3	-0.7

Main results

- The annual change of the CPI for the month of October increases three tenths and stands at -0.7%.
- Annual core inflation is 0.1%, the same as that registered in September.
- The monthly change of the overall index is 0.7%.
- The Harmonised Index of Consumer Prices (HICP) annual change stands at -0.6%, four tenths more than the previous month.

Annual changes

The annual change of the overall Consumer Price Index (CPI) in October was -0.7%, three tenths higher than the change registered in the month of September.

The groups which most contributed to this increase were:

➤ Transport, which presented a change of -4.4%, almost two-and-a-half points higher than the change recorded in September, mainly due to the fact that the decrease in prices of fuels and lubricants for personal transport equipment was greater in October 2008 than this year.

➤ Clothing and footwear, whose annual change stood at -1.9%, three tenths above that from the month of September. This change was due to the recovery of prices after sales that were more substantial than those of last year.

In addition to the aforementioned increases, worth noting was the decrease in the annual change of the following group:

➤ Education, whose annual change decreased one point, standing at 2.2%, as a result of the fact that prices of tertiary education rose more last year than in October 2009.

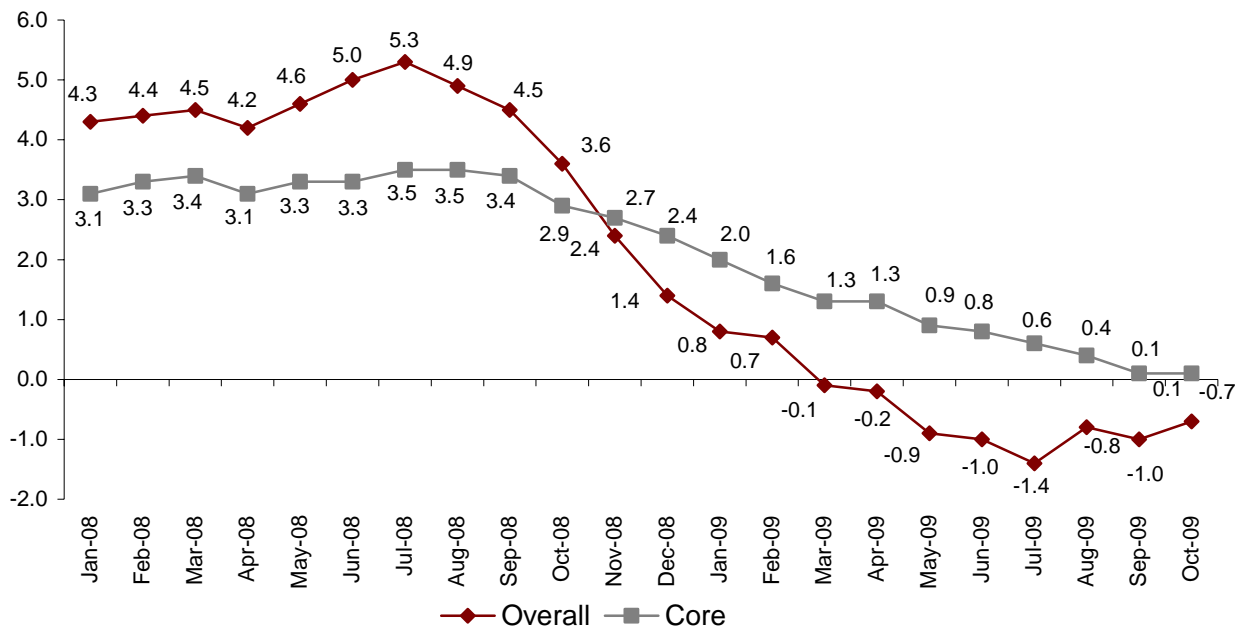

The following graph shows how each of the groups contributed to the increase of the overall CPI annual change for October:

The annual change of core inflation (overall index without unprocessed food or energy products) remains at 0.1%, and therefore its difference from the overall index change stood at 0.8 points.

Overall and Core

Monthly changes

In October, the monthly change of the overall CPI was 0.7 %.

Amongst the groups with the most relevant positive contribution to the overall index were the following:

- Clothing and footwear, whose monthly change of 9.6% reflected the performance of the new winter season. Its contribution to the overall index was 0.742
- Furnishings, household equipment and routine maintenance of the house, with a monthly rate of 0.3% contributed 0.025, due to the rise in prices of most of its components.
- Education, which presented a rate of 1.6% and a contribution of 0.021, for the most part caused by the rise in prices of tertiary education, customary at the beginning of the university academic year.

Likewise, the groups with the greatest negative monthly contribution in the month of October were the following:

- Recreation and culture, whose change of -0.7% contributed -0.054 to the overall index, largely due to the change in prices of package holidays.
- Restaurants, cafés and hotels, with a change of -0.2% over the previous month. This behaviour was explained by the drop in prices of accommodation services. Its contribution to the overall CPI in October was -0.030.
