

Calendar of availability of short-term and structural statistics

The INE approves the calendar of statistics for 2012

The dates of publication can already be consulted at the INE website

The Executive Board of the National Statistics Institute (INE) has approved the availability calendar of short-term and structural statistics for the year 2012.

Said calendar can be consulted at the INE website, where it can also be downloaded in iCal format.

Among the new features introduced in the INE calendar of availability of short-term and structural statistics for the year 2012, there are two aspects worth highlighting.

- The bringing forward of the publication dates of the preview estimate of Quarterly National Accounts which, following recommendations of the European Statistics Office, Eurostat, will be disseminated 30 days following the end of the reference period.
- On the last Friday of every month “t”, the date of publication of the structural statistics scheduled for month “t+2” will be announced.
