Application to vote of voters residing abroad

Voters residing abroad who wish to vote should submit their application to vote to the Provincial Delegation of the Electoral Census Office that corresponds to their registration, by 21 November. The Electoral Census Office has sent out the official application form to all eligible voters.

Applications may be made electronically. In order to do this, an electronic certificate from the INE Electronic Office is needed, or the password sent with the official form.

The form is also available in consulates and web pages of the Ministry of Home Affairs, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Cooperation and the Electoral Census Office.

Voters complaints

The electoral census may be consulted from 2 to 9 November in municipal councils and provincial delegations of the Electoral Census Office. Voters residing abroad may check their registration data during this same period in the different consulates.

Voters may present their complaints at municipal councils, consulates or provincial delegations of the Electoral Census Office, during this same period, from 2 to 9 November.

Census cards

The Electoral Census Office shall issue all voters resident in Spain a census card, containing the corresponding polling station, as well as the voting premises and address, as of 23 November.

Voter Query Processing

The INE web site (<http://www.ine.es/en/welcome.shtml>) has information available on the electoral census, containing data of interest about the Electoral Census Office activity during these elections, current census, complaints, postal voting, deadlines and legal regulations.

The INE Electronic Office <https://sede.ine.gob.es/en> also has a registration data consultation service in the electoral census, as well as the polling station and electoral premises at which they should vote, once the voter has provided identification with an electronic certification (electronic ID, among other).

Furthermore, there is a general consultation service about polling stations and electoral premises in the Electronic Office with no identification needed.

Additionally, provincial delegations of the Electoral Census Office can be consulted about activities of their competence (census registration, polling stations and premises, census cards, postal vote...) in their offices and phone number +34901101900.

Local partial elections

On 20 December local partial elections are also held in 30 municipalities and 215 local territorial entities below municipality (LTEBM) of 10 Provinces that did not present candidacies in the elections held on 24 May 2015.
