

Regulations regarding the main areas of jurisdiction of the Electoral Census Office in electoral processes are Organic Law on the General Electoral System (LOREG)

Article 85

1. The right to vote is achieved via registration in the certified copies of the census lists or by specific census certification and, in both cases, by identifying the voter, which will be done using the national identity card, passport or driving license in which a photo of the holder appears, or, when dealing with foreigners, using the residence card.
2. The certified copies of the census lists referred to in the previous paragraph shall only contain citizens of legal age on the voting date.
3. Likewise, those people who prove their right to vote by being registered in the section census and showing the corresponding judicial decision may also vote.
4. When the board, despite the display of any of the documents referred to in paragraph 1, in doubt, by itself or as a result of the claim that the act makes publicly a receiver, guardian or another voter, about the identity of the individual who appears to vote, the board, in view of the supporting documents and testimony that may present the voters present decide by majority. In any event pass will be sent both blames the competent court to require that responsibility be usurper or another name that has denied falsely.
5. Specific census certification, through which the individual is credited with exceptional entry in the Electoral Census shall be governed in their expedition, the body responsible for the same, time and in appropriate cases, so have about Central Electoral Board through appropriate instruction.